

U.S. READY TO ACT IN EVENT OF COAL STRIKE

"Public Is Interested and Its Rights Must Be Protected," Daugherty Declares

STILL IN DEADLOCK

Walk-Out Inevitable, Davis and Lewis Declare After Conference at Labor Department

Palm Beach, Fla., March 14. — Disappointment over the refusal of operators in the bituminous coal industry to meet with miners in conference in an effort to write a new national wage contract was expressed today by Attorney General Daugherty during his visit here with President Harding's party. The attorney general at the same time reminded all parties to the dispute that the government is not a party to the contract and therefore has a right to take a hand in the business.

"I think it was a mistake on the part of the operators to hold out against a preliminary conference with the mine workers," Mr. Daugherty declared. "There is a contractual relation between the two interests. They agreed to meet and discuss a new agreement to meet and discuss a new agreement. They ought to do so and it is fair to remind them that the government itself is a party to this contract and therefore has a right to take a hand in the business."

"Also, all parties involved might remember that the present dispute is not a private affair. The public is interested and its rights must be protected by the government as I think they will be insofar as may be possible."

"I hope the strike will not take place, of course, but if it does, those immediately involved might remember that the country must not be left without the fuel necessary to maintain the transportation and essential industries."

Strike Believed Inevitable

Washington, March 14. — Secretary of Labor Davis and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, exchanged views today on the threatening situation in the bituminous coal industry, and both were said after their conference to be of the opinion that a national strike in the union fields was inevitable. Davis again of the willingness of the miners' union to open negotiations for a new national wage contract, a proposition which mine operators are refusing to entertain.

Later, Mr. Lewis declared the cessation of work in the union mines after April 1 was "coming about automatically" and asserted that "a bold commercial policy of the operators for which the public must pay" was in part responsible.

"If there is no conference between the miners' union and the operators," he added in referring to the bituminous coal industry, "there can be no wage contract drawn up. If there is no wage contract, there won't be any coal dug after April 1 in the union mines."

Mr. Lewis accused mine operators' associations which have sought local conferences with the union, of looking to "playing for position" and "shooting propaganda."

Conference in New York Today

New York, March 14. — Anthracite miners and operators will meet in joint conference tomorrow with little prospect of reaching an agreement on a wage scale before the expiration of the present contract on March 31, which will mean a suspension of mining in the Pennsylvania hard coal fields until a satisfactory arrangement has been arrived at.

This was the opinion of operators and miners here tonight for the conference. A suspension would not mean a break in negotiations, because twice before in the history of wage conferences in this industry operators and miners continued the discussion of wage contracts to a satisfactory conclusion while the coalfields remained idle.

The miners' union is not expected to make any announcement regarding a suspension in advance of developments indicating that no agreement can be reached by March 31.

It has been generally agreed by both sides that the two weeks remaining before the present two-year agreement expires is too short a time to work out a new contract in view of conditions existing in the industry.

MRS. OBENCHAIN WEEPS

Her Attorney Dwell: on Love Existing Between Her and J. Belmont Kennedy, Stain Man.

Los Angeles, March 14. — Tears came into the eyes of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain today as she listened to the opening argument in her behalf in her trial on the charge of murdering her husband, J. Belmont Kennedy. At the trial, Mrs. Obenchain made the argument, dwell on the love which, according to testimony, existed between the defendant and Kennedy, declaring it showed she had no motive for plotting Kennedy's death.

One of the three women on the jury when Mrs. Obenchain made a letter to Kennedy, who made the argument, dwell on the love which, according to testimony, existed between the defendant and Kennedy, declaring it showed she had no motive for plotting Kennedy's death.

"Love me always," the attorney declared the state's theory that Mrs. Obenchain was a "woman scorned" had been disproved and that "if anything, this case was a case of a man scorned."

CHORUS GIRL SILENT IN MATRIMONY QUIZ

Refuses to Tell Whether She Has Handed Ring Back to Wealthy School Boy She Wedded

New York, March 14. — Geneva Mitchell, chorus girl bride for a week of Herbert Savage, wealthy school boy athlete and poet, had all the thrills of a prima donna when she reported for work tonight.

Clustered about the stage door, eager for a glimpse of the romantic little debutante, "poet" wife, scores of curious swains, while inside the theatre a small army of reporters was waiting to bombard her with questions as to the veracity of reports that she had handed Herbert back his wedding ring and would seek annulment of their marriage eluded them by promising to see them between acts in her dressing room, but when the time for the interview came she sent down word that she had decided not to be interviewed. Her grandfather, S. W. Rice, would tell the reporters all about it, she said.

Her grandfather, S. W. Rice, would tell the reporters all about it, she said. A new door laughed at reports that Young Savage had given up and departed Sunday for La Jolla, Calif., to see his mother.

"He was around here last night, just the same as he was in his love-making at the theatre," and sent up a note asking her to see him. She sent down word that she wouldn't. I expect to see him around tonight before the show is over."

Grandfather Rice announced that Geneva had returned Savage's wedding ring Saturday and that annulment proceedings would be started Thursday on the ground that both the bride and groom were too young to get married.

GENERAL PERSHING AGAINST ARMY CUT

Whole National Defense Project Put Through in 1920 Imperilled, He Declares

Washington, March 14. — House appropriation committee proposals to cut the regular army to 115,000 enlisted men and 11,000 officers aroused General Pershing today to a renewed defense project put through in 1920 would be imperilled if the slash recommended was made by congress. Success of that "sound military policy" and system of national defense, he said in a statement to the Associated Press, depended upon adequate provision for the military establishment.

"The fibre of the regular army has been thoroughly tested," General Pershing said, "by the strains placed upon it, not only in time of war, but in time of peace, and it has held its ground with the onslaughts made upon it in the name of economy or pacifism."

"It appears now, due to the demands for economy in our national expenditures, another critical hour for the army and the national defense is at hand."

Referring to the "frequent slashes" in army strength made by congress since the war, General Pershing said, "a vacillating course" with respect to army personnel, discouraged competent men from entering the service and lowered morale and efficiency within the army until it was "difficult, if not impossible, to use to advantage the services of even the best of such personnel."

General Pershing made no direct reference to the proposal to slash overseas garrisons, but he has had the misfortune of the garrisons he made in the war department does not believe that the forces in Hawaii or Panama can be reduced with safety and that there is no thought in the department of reducing the Philippine garrison until the serious treaties worked out by the Washington conference become effective.

ANOTHER HOUSING BILL IS FAVORABLY REPORTED

Albany, March 14. — The senate cities committee tonight reported favorably to the legislature the Lockwood housing committee bill designed to create a state trade board similar to the Federal Trade Commission. The measure was advanced to order of third reading. Three previously unsuccessful attempts had been made to bring the bill out of committee.

Two other measures of the Lockwood committee, one designed to withdraw from the courts the discretion of suspending sentences in cases of violations of the Donnelly anti-trust act, and to require a minimum prison sentence of three months, were defeated in committee.

SENATE DOWNS TREATY CHANGE

Rejects by Vote of 55 to 30 Senator Robinson's Amendment to Pacific Pact

OUTCOME IN DOUBT

Result Reveals Treaty Proponents Did Not Have Two-Thirds Majority

Washington, March 14. — In the first not call on any issue of the four-power Pacific treaty, the senate rejected today the amendment of Senator Robinson, Democrat, of Arkansas, designed to extend the benefits of the treaty to non-signatory nations whose interests are affected. The amendment was defeated, 55 to 30.

Four Republicans, Borah, France, Johnson and LaFollette, supported the amendment and four Democrats, Pomeroy, Russell, Underwood and Williams, voted in the negative. With eleven votes of the full membership not cast, the treaty opponents fell short of mustering a one-third and the treaty proponents fell short of having a two-thirds vote on the amendment. A two-thirds vote is necessary for the ratification of the treaty.

Senators McCumber of North Dakota and Lenroot of Wisconsin, both Republicans, led off for the ratification, praising the treaty as a long step toward international understanding and denying that it embodied dangerous entanglements. On the opposing side, Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, was given right of way for a legal argument attacking the treaty's obligations.

Would Extend Conference Plan. Senator McCumber's argument was directed toward the arms conference program generally, but he laid stress on the four power treaty, urging extension of the conference plan to embrace all the great powers including Germany and Austria.

In his argument that the four party treaty contains no obligation to use force, Mr. Lenroot set forth at length what he conceived to be the real meaning of the treaty provisions. The proof was overwhelming, he said, that there was no obligation anywhere in the treaty for the use of force.

Senator Lenroot had several sharp clashes with Senators Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas; King, Democrat, Utah, and others. When Mr. Lenroot said that Senator Robinson had appeared to take the interpretation of public men of other nations rather than those of the American delegates to the conference, Senator Robinson contended vigorously that the treaties were ambiguous and that opinion of officials of other countries concerned were invaluable.

Albany, March 14. — Announcement of the first arrest under the state income tax law on a charge of filing a false return, was made today by the state tax commission. Hyman Feldman, a clothing manufacturer of Rochester, was arrested on three indictments charging false and fraudulent income tax returns for 1919 and 1920, the announcement said. He was admitted to bail for $1,000.

The indictment of Feldman, obtained by the tax commission, was declared to mark the beginning of a "determined effort on the part of the tax commission to demonstrate there are teeth in the state income tax law."

The announcement also said that Feldman, if found guilty, is liable to a penalty of $1,000, a fine of $1,000, or a fine and imprisonment for a year for each offense charged. A civil action against Feldman was also undertaken by the attorney general, it was announced.

HUNDREDS ATTEND FUNERAL OF SLAIN JERSEY CIRCUS MAN

Investigators Predict Arrest in Connection With Brunen's Death Will Be Made Within Forty-Eight Hours

Riverside, N. J., March 14. — Hundreds of members of fraternal organizations, attended the funeral today of John Theodore Brunen, circus man, shot to death as he sat reading in his home here last Friday night. The services were to have been held at 2 p. m., but owing to the great crowd they were postponed and the funeral was held at 4 p. m.

First, the prosecution concerned itself with the alleged motive—money. Father Brunen, a well-known college teacher, was the owner of a will made by Brunen in February, 1921, in which he left most of his estate to the priest. The college official was a witness to the document.

Theophile Marcotte, a life insurance agent, testified that Father Brunen brought his half-brother to his office and said he wished him to take out a $25,000 policy to acquire the habit of saving.

Then Detective George Lafolle, assigned to the case, was called, with exhibits that included a revolver, children's feathers, bloodstained automobile seats, and a quilt.

Bullets of Same Calibre

Repeating previous testimony, the detective said the bullets found in Brunen's head were .25 calibre—the bore of the priest's revolver. Lafolle also asserted that the bullet markings made on the bullets which he had fired from the priest's revolver corresponded to those of the pieces of lead that had entered the student's head.

The detective swore the feathers were similar to those clinging to a cloth found wrapped around Brunen's head. He found them, he said, in the priest's car, with the blood-stained cushions. Then the quilt was examined. The witness pointed to its peculiar design and asserted that the cloth wound about the dead man's head had been torn from the quilt.

Under cross-examination, Lafolle testified that he had not noticed the feathers on the cloth on January 9, three days after the date of the alleged murder; that he had not detected the stains on the quilt on February 22, when the car was in the garage.

Efforts to stay the proceedings were made as soon as the case was called. Gustave Monet, defense counsel, asserting that his client was not in a mental condition to assist his lawyer.

ACTIVE DAY AGAIN ON STOCK EXCHANGE

Numerous Speculative Issues Display Strength; Rails and Industrials Active and Strong

New York, March 14.—The prominence and strength of numerous speculative issues and the new movement of shares of intrinsic value movement characterized another active, but professional session on the stock exchange. Dealings approximated 900,000 shares, but this impressive total was made up largely of motors and kindred accessories, sugars, independent steels, secondary equipments and utilities, notably the gas group.

Dividend-paying rails and industrials of description became fairly active and strong later, especially transcontinentals, coalers and several of the eastern trunk lines.

Specific features of the advance comprised Consolidated Gas, Studebaker preferred, American Sugar, Cuba Cane Sugar common and preferred, American Woolen, Kelsey Wheel, Cast Iron Pipe, Southern Pacific, and New York Central at net gains of one to six points.

Foremost among the backward or heavy stocks were the foreign oils particularly Mexican Petroleum and General Asphalt, and several of the food specialties. Market Street Railway prior preferred cancelled part of its recent steady advance.

Apartment of the more favorable aspects of the labor situation, as indicated by increasing probability of a strike by the soft coal miners, and further wage cuts in the steel and textile trades, the day's news was regarded as encouraging.

Responsive to the recovery in sterling exchange, British bonds rallied smartly in broad but comparatively light dealings. United Kingdoms of 1922 were the outstanding feature of that group.

The strongest feature of the domestic list was Reading 4s, which rose two points on the buying of railway stocks in the last half of the session. Weakness was shown by Distillers 5s which lost two points, and Peoria & Eastern and Cuba Cane 8s. Final prices for Liberty bonds were mainly a trifle lower.

BACK FENCE TOMATOES

Every gardener finds, as a rule, that he hasn't quite room enough for all the things he wants to plant. An effective scheme for utilizing all the space in a small yard was noted last summer. That is growing tomatoes against a fence fronting either south or west.

Strips were nailed at three-foot intervals from the upper and lower two-by-fours to which, in the usual backyard fence the boards were nailed, and to the tomatoes were trained, allowing branches to extend along the two-by-fours, both the upper and lower. With the fence reflecting the heat of the sun, the tomatoes were ripened much more quickly than if upon the ground.

The same effect may be secured by nailing strips of chicken-wire fencing along the board fence and tying the tomatoes to it, but the wood strips are more easy to handle.

The chicken wire, however, offers an excellent scheme for growing cucumbers in the least possible space, allowing them to climb upon the wire instead of running over the ground which is needed for other crops. If your garden room is limited try the fence for tomatoes or cucumbers or both. They also furnish an ornamental feature, the greenery of the vines covering the fence and giving the appearance of a hedge at a little distance. It may be recalled that tomatoes when first introduced into cultivation were grown as ornamental plants under the name of "love apples" and their use as a vegetable was not learned until some time later. A scurried tomato nestling among the deep green foliage has an ornamental character which is particularly well displayed in the fence scheme of growing them.

"Cats and Dogs"

Isn't your menagerie about large enough?

So many people think they have investments when all they have is speculations.

An investment always safeguards the principal and is satisfied with a reasonable and regular return.

A speculation recklessly invests the principal in order to secure possible but not probable large returns. And these are usually irregular.

That's why so many men—19 out of every 20—are objects of charity in their old age.

One man calls these "wild-cat" speculations "cats and dogs"—have you any?

Every little while there's a Ponzi—because, as he says "there's one born every minute."

Most of the people who lost their money with Ponzi would have refused to invest in anything safe and legitimate because it would have been too slow.

How many "cats and dogs" have you?

Isn't your menagerie large enough?

EDITORIAL SPEAKING.

A government which Lincoln designated as "of the people, by the people and for the people" gets very far away from its original purpose and form of administration when it becomes a government for groups. The proper purpose of legislative bodies, whether state or national, is to consider what is best for the people as a whole, and then to do that thing. There can be in the very nature of things no laws which work neither inconvenience nor injustice to anybody, but they are designed, or should be, to meet conditions in the best possible way. In accomplishing this end, it should not be the purpose of any congress or legislature unduly to weigh what would financially be best for one group or another, but rather to put the country as a whole in one pan of the scales and the proposed law in the other. When they balance the happy medium has been reached.

Speaking of wood used on railroads, the whole of it by no means is for ties. For rail car construction alone in New York state in 1929, the cost of wood was $2,045,000, even though on account of the large increase in the use of metal, wood consumption had declined 50 per cent in seven years. Though there is not a great deal of wood in automobiles, it is noted that the cost of it was as great as that for cars, and the price much higher. The average price of wood used by railway companies was $59 per 1,000 feet, and that of lumber used in the auto trades $1.61 per 1,000 feet. There may come a time when lumber will be cheaper, but with the increasing use of it in every line, there is need for more tree planting, and perhaps a more judicious planting of them. Up to this time the planting in New York has leaned to the evergreen trees. There are other trees, the deciduous, hard wood varieties, that there is to be continued need for; and moreover all soils are not fitted for evergreens, and not all for deciduous trees. In planting it, possibly be suggested that to this date not enough attention has been given to selection of proper trees for soils.

One of the worst features about any movement for government reform is likely to be that, good as it may be, attracts to itself individuals who do not know when the desired end has been attained. There for example, is Mathathma Gandhi, leader of the disobedience policy against the British government in India. There has never been any question of his good faith, but his preaching has stirred up riots and has been followed by the death of many persons. A man of good judgment himself, he has always stopped at this side of civil disobedience, but he has been unable to curb the fanatics who followed after. So in Ireland, it would appear that Collins and his associates have won their way, but they are not fully able to cope with the situation brought about by men who like de Valera are unwilling to stop.

Concerning federal aid, which by the way is one of the things which lately has been discussed in many ways, there has of late been considerable discussion, and in some sections objection to it has been offered. One of these objections, which has been made largely in the more populous and wealthy states, as for example New York, Massachusetts and Illinois, is that some of the poorer states are receiving more in proportion than are the states named. In reply to it, and can be stated that our country is not to be considered as a whole, and not as a mere accumulation of selfish sections, each asking if the citizen within its boundaries is getting his share. As matter of fact the man who asks that about his own state when good roads or health problems are considered, would ask the same thing about his own county, or his own ward as against some other ward or township in his county. We may not need government aid to the same extent for child welfare in New York that is needed elsewhere, but however got, there is need that the new-born generations survive if our country is to be perpetuated.

TAXI DRIVERS MORE CAREFUL

If Proposed Bill Is Enacted at Albany This Session.

Beginning Sept. 1, 1932, it will be a crime for any taxi driver to knowingly carry a party or parties to houses of assignation or prostitution, if a bill now before the state legislature succeeds in passing. A draft of the bill has been received in this city. Its text is as follows:

"Section 1149—Drivers of vehicles carrying to houses of prostitution. Any person who as owner, manager, officer, agent or employee shall knowingly receive any person into any vehicle for purpose of lewdness, assignation or prostitution, or shall direct, take, transport or offer to direct, take, transport any person for immoral purposes, to any bawdy house or other place of assignation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

Sustains Fractured Arm.

Myron H. Quackenbush, janitor at the Oneonta club, who fell on Sunday, while on the way to church and sustained a severe injury to his right wrist and forearm, had an X-ray picture taken yesterday, disclosing that the bone had been splintered and that the injury was more serious than at first believed. It's needless to state what his acquaintances at the club have been saying to him.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Foolish Assertions

Perhaps congress ought to appropriate $300,000 for the operation of a $7,000,000 helium plant in Texas or somewhere else. That is a matter which can be decided only by men who view the question with all the facts before them, giving due regard to the changes in our military program and the negotiations of treaties at the limitation of armaments conference. In any event, it would be foolish to condemn congress for failure to appropriate all the money that some one thinks would be effective in preventing loss of life and property. —[Harrisburg Telegraph.]

The Genoa Conference.

We do not care to take a hand in one of Lloyd Geo. G's political poker games. Calling it an "economical and industrial conference" fools nobody. We are not going to Genoa to recognize the Soviets. At the same time, however, we were warning on the world that the must be an "open door" in Russia as well as in China. We have given notice Europe cannot recoup itself by forming a close corporation to loot the Russian storehouse. What is the use of putting in the summer talking boundaries, treaties and readjustments when the Genoa meeting refuses to deal with national debts, loans, unpaid taxes, reduction of armaments, German reparations and financial sanity? —[Philadelphia Ledger.]

Ten Million Years Dead.

Handing the rawberry to that story of the discovery of a plesiosaurus roaming about Patagonia now, Professor Gilmore, of the National Museum, says the last of those interesting pets of the Mesozoic period shuffled out of range about 10,000,000 years ago. We're tired of this discussion and will take the responsibility of settling it once and for all. —[Philadelphia Inquirer.]

Justice Holmes

In 1913 Justice Holmes became entitled to retirement. He had even then a long and honorable record; he had earned a rest. But at 72 he was not ready to quit and 81 finds him still indefatigable in his labors, devoted to his duty and active in its performance. Great talents, great industry, great sympathy and great understanding, based on a fine tradition, has Justice Holmes, and nobly has he offered his gifts in public service. —[New York Herald.]

On the Safe Side.

To be on the safe side when a person gets the first look at a new baby in the presence of the parents it is always best to say the infant's eyes and mouth are like the mother's and the nose and ears like a father's. —[Exchange.]

Too Bad.

"Say, Red," said Dead Shot Bill to a bartender in one of the 13 leading speak-easies of Burnt Powder, Arizona, "didn't Shifty Pete tell you that he thought I had a nasty temper?" "Why, no," replied Red, "but I can't remember." "Too bad," said Bill, giving one his holsters a hitch. "Then I've killed an innocent man." —[Washington Star.]

PRODUCT MENACE TO FARMERS.

Says Senator Davenport Discussing Filled Milk Bill.

America's future depends upon the fostering of its dairy interests and of its guarding them against evils of commercialism, Senator Davenport declared in the Senate last week in arguing in favor of the so-called filled milk bill aimed to relieve the farmers of the State from the strong competition they are said to be meeting in a milk product being manufactured in large quantities by a certain concern. This product is said to imitate and to closely resemble milk itself, with the exception of the fact that the butter fats have been removed from the natural product and coconut oils substituted.

After pointing to the lessons provided by the present condition of countries in which care has not been taken to foster the all-important agricultural element, Senator Davenport said: "In this case under discussion it appears possible to do a thing skillfully and with more or less fraud, which results in the manufacture of an inferior milk product that cost two cents and sell for nine cents. In public competition with a genuine dairy product of greater cost to produce, a wide margin of profit which may be used and is used for advertising purposes and propaganda to break down further and further the agricultural products of America. This fact, to my mind, lies at the bottom of this whole discussion."

WILLING TO SUPPORT FAMILY

Davenport, March 14.—Something more than a year ago, Adelbert Quackenbush and his wife had a falling out. As a consequence, the wife took the six minor children, left home with them, and after some wandering, finally brought up in Delhi, where, upon advice of Humane Officer Charles H. Phelps, a warrant was procured for the arrest of Mr. Quackenbush. Although he had always been able and willing to support his family at his home, and had never been in Delhi, he was taken to the latter town, and before Justice D. W. Shaw, was convicted of cruelty to children, alleged to have been committed in the town of Delhi. Mr. Quackenbush gave bail, and appealed to the district court. Judge McLaughlin has just handed down his decision, reversing the conviction, and ordering the defendant be discharged. In a brief opinion, the judge very vigorously condemns the practice of using the criminal courts to settle differences between individuals.

Asleep on the Sleeper.

Grover C. Brown of Altamont paid an unexpected but nevertheless pleasant visit to his friends in The Star composing room early yesterday morning, returning later in the day to his home. Mr. Brown, better known as "Bus-ter," went to Albany Monday and stayed over to take in the theatre performance in the evening. Leaving Albany at 11:30 on the "sleeper," he became drowsy and by the time the train reached Altamont he was in the land of dreams. He did not wake up until the train was near Cobleskill, so he decided to come on to Oneonta to visit his friends on The Star's night force.

FARMERS PROTEST STRIKE

Master of New Lisbon Grange Appeals for Opposition from Public, Declaring That Farm Produce Will Spoil and Business Will Be Stagnated.

The Star has received the following communication from L. G. Robinson, Master of the New Lisbon Grange, vigorously protesting against a strike by the coal miners and appealing for vigorous opposition:

Editor Star:—The National Grange wishes to arouse public sentiment in this locality in protest of a possible strike of mine and railroad employees.

If this strike takes place the production of fuel ceases. This will cause manufacturing hardships and loss and will eventually cause an increase in selling cost.

The farmers' products, upon which this nation depends, will remain unsold and be allowed to spoil on the farm for lack of transportation.

A strike at this time of year wrecks the plans of a year's crops. Farm supplies in shape of seed, fertilizer and machinery will be held up causing untold loss and expense to whom? To you, men and women of Otsego county and your neighbors surrounding us, you are the ones that this danger threatens and to you we look for aid in trying to head off this threatening disaster, for that is what such a strike would be.

At this time of world readjustment it stands every man and woman to do their share in building up, instead of tearing down, of sacrifice in place of selfishness. Also to hold up to the right any attempt of any man or set of men, to dodge their share of this responsibility. This refusal of a small group of men to deal fairly with one another and make others pay the penalty, is contrary to all common sense and a flagrant violation of the Golden Rule. We are doing our part and ask Capital and Labor to do theirs.

We appeal to you to take active interest in building up public sentiment that will bring this matter to a fair settlement.

Master New Lisbon Grange, No. 526.

Call of the Road Too Strong.

The call of the road was too strong for four Schenectady lads, all under 16 years of age, yesterday morning and they decided to tour the world. Accordingly they hopped side freight train and headed south. Side trips were probably in their itinerary but not the society that awaited them when they reached Oneonta where they were taken in tow by a D. & H. officer and given a personally conducted excursion to police headquarters. The boys, whose names are Robert Ervin, Tony Anapolis, Tony Mangina and Ernie Desantis were arraigned before Acting City Judge Hathaway, who suspended judgment until a further investigation of the case can be made. The boys were placed in the detention room for the night.

U. S. SUPREME COURT DECIDES TEXAS CASE

Rules Commerce Commission Without Authority to Compel Abandonment of Railroad

Washington, March 12.—The Interstate Commerce commission today was held by the supreme court to be without authority to authorize or compel the abandonment of a strictly state railroad.

The decision, which was handed down in a case brought by the state of Texas against the Eastern Texas Railroad company, to prevent that company from dismantling under an order issued by the commission, declared that where a railroad lies entirely within a single state, is owned and operated by a corporation of that state and is not a part of another line, and where its continued operation cannot be more than local concern, the commission is without jurisdiction.

"Interstate and foreign commerce will not be burdened or affected by any shortage in the earnings nor will any carrier be such commerce have to bear or make good the shortage" of the Eastern Texas railroad, Justice Vandevanter stated in delivering the opinion, to which there was no dissent.

"It is not as if the road were a branch or extension whose unrequited operation would or might burden the main line and thereby affect its utility or service as an artery of interstate and foreign commerce."

—The Oneonta Five Spots will play the Cooperstown Independents at the county seat this evening. This will be the final game of the season for the Independents.

—Don't be certain when a man is seen walking about the garden such a day as yesterday that he is looking for a chance to plant something. It's more likely that he is looking for a chance to dig—for bait.

—For the accommodation of those who have prepared their income tax returns too late for mailing, J. S. Taylor will be at the federal revenue office in the post office building from 7 to 9 this evening and returns may be filed with him.

—Work was commenced yesterday mailing out to ex-service men the questionnaires the information obtained from which will be used in compiling a history of the activities of Oneonta in the World War. It is asked that care be taken in filling out the blanks and that they be returned as soon as possible in the envelopes provided.

—Reports recently received by Principal VanDeusen from the State Education department at Albany, show that out of 135 papers submitted in the January Regents' examinations at the high school, but ten were rejected by the state examiners. This is an unusually high average of success and reflects much credit upon students and teachers alike.

NEW ASSISTANT LEADER

In order to handle most effectively the great amount of Junior Extension work which will be carried on this year it was decided to secure a full time assistant leader for the Girls' Work. The need of this is quite apparent when more than fifty clubs of girls are already organized for this year and many additional regular Foods and Canning Clubs are to be organized this summer.

The worker secured by the Junior Extension board is Miss Elizabeth Master of Kitchener, Ontario, Canada. Miss Master is well qualified to lead such an important work, both from her education and practical experience. She is a graduate of the Ontario Agricultural college at Guelph securing her B. Sc. degree in Home Economics in 1916. The year following her graduation she was dietitian in a large Canadian hospital at Fort Williams and during the year taught Home Economics for six months at her alma mater. From this Miss Master received a call from New York state as Home Bureau agent in Allegheny county and there built up a strong working organization during the two years 1917 and 1918. In addition to her regular work she interested girls in several communities to take up club work.

From this position Miss Master was called to again take up work in Canada. She was placed at Kamloops in British Columbia as the first dietitian in the large Tranquille sanatorium. Her excellent service here in organizing the work brought an unusual attractive offer from the Fraser Valley Dairy company of Van Couven, B. C., to organize and conduct milk campaigns, this being for the purpose of setting before the people of that district the value and need of milk and its products in the daily diet, incidentally to sell more milk. Following this campaign of several months with excellent results Miss Master started work with the Soldier Settlement board at Vernon, British Columbia. In this position she was the first in charge of the organization of the Home Branch work of that board. In addition to her regular duties she had a great deal to do with the colonization and community work. Also numerous short courses were organized and held throughout the district with the women and girls relative to Home Making work.

With this and other valuable extension services rendered both in Canada and New York state Miss Master comes highly recommended and capable. Local leaders and girls in the work will be assured of most splendid assistance and help. As rapidly as possible and as time permits some Americanization work will be started. It is hoped that other county organizations will join with the Junior Extension board in this needed field.

ATTEND TRACTION HEARING

City Engineer Frank M. Garney and S. H. Cheney, auditor for the Southern New York railway, returned last evening from Albany where they had been in attendance during the afternoon at the hearing before a joint committee of the state assembly and senate on the proposed repeal of and substitute for the present law requiring traction companies operating on paved streets to assume the cost of paving between the tracks and for three feet on each side. Opposition to the proposed bill, which it is claimed would leave municipalities without any jurisdiction over street car lines, is universal among cities throughout the state, nearly every city sending representatives or letters and telegrams to the hearing. Earlier in the day the city representatives met at the city hall and appointed to represent them at the hearing the city engineers of Manhattan bureau, Troy and Watervliet and the city attorneys of Auburn, New York and Buffalo. The city officials admit that the present bill is not entirely satisfactory but contend that the proposed measure is entirely too drastic, an intermediate measure seeming most satisfactory to them.

Red Cross Work Rooms Open.

The Red Cross work rooms on the second floor of the post office building will be open for work today from 2 until 5. The new rooms are light and pleasant and make the hours spent there more enjoyable. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance today.

FIVE NEW TEACHERS ELECTED

Miss Dorothy M. Hanks, a Native of Oneonta, Among New Instructors Chosen at Meeting Last Evening of Board of Education. Present Teachers Re-elected With Exception of Those Who Have Resigned — Teaching Contracts Due Today.

The entire teaching force in the public schools of the city, with the exception of those whose resignations have been tendered, were re-elected and five new teachers were appointed by the Board of Education at their meeting at the high school building last evening. It is thought probable that most of the teachers will accept re-election but as the contracts for 1922 are not due until today a full list of the teachers for next year could not be given last evening.

The new teachers elected, who will begin their duties here in September, are Miss Dorothy Hanks, Miss Violet Tripp, Miss Elsie Biddleman, Miss Ruth Hemminger and Miss Florence A. Rose. Miss Biddleman, Miss Hemminger and Miss Tripp will instruct in the high school department, while Miss Hanks and Miss Rose have been offered positions in the elementary schools.

Miss Violet Tripp, who, as instructor in Latin, will succeed Miss Mildred A. Peck, who has resigned, is a graduate of Cornell university and is now teaching Latin at Broadbain. She has been highly recommended to the Board by her former instructors at Cornell. Miss Tripp lives in Glens Falls.

The new instructor in English will be Miss Elsie Biddleman, a graduate of the Mansfield, Pa., State Normal school and now a senior in Syracuse university. Miss Ruth Hemminger, whose home is in Haverstraw, will be instructor in Spanish and assistant in French. She is a graduate of the Albany State College for Teachers. Both Miss Biddleman and Miss Hemminger have been highly recommended to the local school authorities.

The two teachers who have been elected to positions in the elementary grades, Miss Dorothy M. Hanks and Miss Florence A. Rose, are both graduates of the Oneonta Normal school. Miss Hanks is a native of Oneonta and a graduate of the Oneonta High school and of the Oneonta Normal, class of 1920, and for the past two years has been teaching in Huntington, L. I. She will probably instruct at the River street school. Miss Rose, who is a graduate of the Oneonta Normal, class of 1920, and has been teaching in Hudson. Both she and Miss Hanks have excellent recommendations.

Dr. R. S. Meeker of the Health Division of the State Education department appeared before the Board and discussed at length the value of mouth hygiene, urging that more work along this line be done in the schools, with the end that teeth troubles be corrected before it is too late. Dr. Meeker was cordially received by the members, who listened to his remarks with interest, but no definite action was taken.

PLAN BOYS AND GIRLS' CLUB

J. A. Lennox, who was assistant in Junior Extension work in Otsego county last year, is evidently to give an impetus to the work in Delaware county where he is now engaged and where he will hold some 20 mass meetings at important centers, one in each town of the county, in an earnest effort to arouse interest in the important phase of Farm Bureau work.

It has been decided to change the name of the work from Junior Extension to Boys' and Girls' club work, by which it is to be known throughout the state, and while the undertakings will be much the same the plans will be modified as experience indicates.

Following the plan outlined there will be a mass meeting of all parents, teachers, pupils and other persons interested in Boys' and Girls' club work, held in each of the following places this week:

Walton, Grange hall, Wednesday, March 15, at 1:30 p. m.; Hamden, school house, Friday, March 17, at 7:30 p. m.; Delhi, Domestic Science building, Saturday, March 18, at 7:45 p. m.

A stereopticon lecture will be given on the organization of Boys' and Girls' clubs. Also some pictures will be shown, showing boys and girls doing actual work along this line. R. M. Adams of the state college of agriculture will be present to discuss the work. One or more local speakers will be present in addition to E. O. Harkness, district superintendent of schools.

'CLARENCE' AT HIGH SCHOOL

Booth Tarkington's Famous Play of Universal Youth Will Be Presented Tonight by Student Dramatic Club.

The final dress rehearsal for "Clarence," which will be presented at the high school this evening and tomorrow evening by the High School Dramatic club, was held last night and proved that the members of the club are ready to give an interpretation of Booth Tarkington's famous drama that will please all who witness it. The players have been working hard for weeks and that their efforts will bear fruit in the best production ever put on by local students is being freely predicted.

The tickets have been going remarkably well but there are still a few good seats left. Tickets may be purchased and those already obtained exchanged for reserved seats at Murdoch's Shoe store. The price is 40 cents, with an additional charge of 10 cents for reservation in the balcony.

Robins Make Their Presence Known.

Although spring is not scheduled to arrive until March 21, at 4:49 a. m., yesterday bore every indication of a spring day in Oneonta. In more than one section of the city, the break of day was heralded by robins, and throughout the day the "first robin" was quite in evidence. The air was balmy and spring-like, and many abandoned overcoats and golfshoes for the time being. The man who remarked that probably we would have a foot of snow in a day or so was not popular.

The Dairy Lunch

Sixth - Anniversary - Sixth

Six years ago today this restaurant was opened to the public, the first one of its kind in the city. It has been our earnest endeavor since that day to serve all with the best food possible at reasonable prices; we have been handicapped more or less since the war on account of abnormal prices, and our inability to get first-class cooks.

We are pleased to be able to announce to the public that we now have a lady cook of eighteen years' experience, which we believe is a positive guarantee of the quality of food to be prepared and served. We have also made a change in our pastry department that is sure to meet the approval of all. We believe the price of eggs and most meats, not including chickens, have become more settled; therefore we have reduced our prices to conform with present-day cost. The regular meal for 50 cents is to supply a popular demand. Today's menu below is a sample of our new plan, and will be continued, with a change twice daily with the same number of choices.

AGED UNADILLA WOMAN.

Mrs. Mary Huyck Will Be Laid to Rest Thursday Afternoon.

Unadilla, March 14. — Mrs. Mary Huyck, a life-long resident of this vicinity, passed away Monday morning at 8 o'clock at her home on Maple avenue, this village. The cause of death was given as embolism. Prayer services will be held at the home Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and at the Unadilla Baptist church, at 2. Rev. E. J. Griswold will officiate, and burial will be in the family plot in St. Matthew's cemetery.

Mary Evelyn Hughton was born on October 16, 1842, and was the eldest of five children of the late William J. and Clara (Spaulding) Hughton. Practically her whole life was spent about Unadilla, and she was a woman with a wide acquaintance. She was educated at Unadilla academy, and a few years later was married to Eliza Huyck. Their entire married life was spent in and about Unadilla. Since her husband's death about six years ago, Mrs. Huyck had lived alone in the home on Maple avenue with frequent visits from her sister, Miss Helen H. Hughton of this village. Despite her advanced years, she was able to be about the house every day and was in possession of all her faculties. It was only two weeks ago that she was taken ill.

Besides the sister mentioned, Mrs. Huyck is survived by one brother, James A. Hughton of Harbor Springs, Mich.

HONORED BY ODD FELLOWS.

Officers Come from Cherry Valley to Funeral of C. H. Butler.

Officers of the Cherry Valley lodge and members came to Oneonta yesterday to attend the funeral of the late Charles H. Butler, held from his home with his son, Willis D. Butler, at 2 Hubbell avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. J. C. Johnson of the 12th Park church, who spoke eloquently of the deceased and consoling to the sorrowing family. A quartet composed of Messrs. Wells, Hoke, Stait and Andrews sang two hymns of a fitting character and the prayer closed the services at the house.

The body was placed in the vault at the Plains cemetery for interment after the convenience of the family. The bearers were E. A. Shepherd, S. A. Clinton, T. W. Hayner and George Pridle. The services at the vault were conducted by the Odd Fellows, the officers of the Cherry Valley lodge present being assisted by several members of Centennial lodge by request. The beautiful ritual for the dead was impressively pronounced. Among the pretty floral tributes was one of exceptional beauty and size from the Cherry Valley lodge, the deceased having long been actively identified with that lodge and having served it off and on for many years.

Among the relatives and friends in attendance from away were his son, Guy D. Butler, wife and son of Richfield Springs, his brother, M. E. Butler of Fairport, and Walter Cornell, son of Fairport, E. ELLSWORTH WEDS IN TEXAS

Questionable Information About Miss Ellsworth's Marriage in Texas.

Norwich, March 14. — Information came to Mrs. Hazel Woodard Ellsworth yesterday from New York that her husband, Leon W. Ellsworth, ex-clergyman, had obtained a divorce decree in Dallas, Texas, and on last Friday was married to Majorie Turner, East Berlin girl, he eloped with on February 20.

Mrs. Ellsworth is at loss to know how Ellsworth obtained his divorce if he has one. The message stated that a copy of the divorce decree had been sent to the parents of the Turner girl at East Berlin.

Neither Mrs. Ellsworth or her lawyer, City Judge Forsythe, were ever served with any legal papers in divorce action. Four months ago, Judge Forsythe received a letter from a Texas lawyer, asking if Mrs. Ellsworth would oppose her husband's action for divorce. Forsythe replied that Ellsworth was not a resident of Texas and that such movement on his part would be opposed.

Forsythe later received a letter from Ellsworth, saying it was all a mistake and he would wait until later. Mrs. Ellsworth was greatly surprised to learn of Ellsworth's marriage, but believes the divorce decree is one faked by him to satisfy the public.

WIDOW OF FRANK VINCENT

Woman Well Known in Oneonta by Maiden Name of Minnie Lawrence Passes Away in Utica — Funeral in This City Friday Afternoon.

Minnie Lawrence, widow of the late Frank Vincent, formerly a resident of Oneonta and as a young woman well remembered by many of the older residents of this city, died at her home in Utica Monday night at 11 o'clock after a two months' illness, aged about 60 years. The body is to be brought to Oneonta Thursday evening and funeral services will be held from the residence of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary S. Vincent, at 30 Center street, Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. B. M. Johns of the First Methodist church will officiate. Interment will be at the Plains cemetery where her husband was buried.

Minnie Lawrence came to Oneonta from Newark Valley with her mother and sister when a young girl and had grown to womanhood here. She was quite popular among the young people of the then village and her home was the scene of much gaiety.

She married Frank Vincent and they continued to reside here. Later he became passenger conductor on the D. & H. railroad by which he had been employed and for a number of years they resided in Binghamton. Nearly 30 years ago they removed to Norwich, he having accepted a position with the O. & W. railroad as yardmaster at that place. Later they removed to Utica, he having taken a position with the last mentioned road as conductor. His death occurred four years ago.

Mrs. Vincent was a member of the Tabernacle Baptist church in Utica and had for the 20 or more years she resided there taken a lively interest in church work. She was a woman of generous kindly nature and had won the regard of many residents of that city by whom her death is regretted.

Mrs. Vincent leaves a sister, Mrs. M. L. Drumm, of Syracuse, who had been with her much of the time during her last illness, and a nephew, Lieut. Lawrence Drumm, attached to the medical department of the United States navy and now stationed at Portsmouth, N. H. Her late husband was a brother of the late E. B. Vincent of this city. So far as known the sister named is the last surviving member of the deceased's family.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY ELECTS

Annual Meeting of United Presbyterian Church Organization Held Yesterday at Home of Mrs. J. M. Henderson.

Election of officers for the ensuing year, the reading of the annual reports and of the report of Mrs. P. M. M. Henderson, 434 Main street.

Officers were chosen as follows: President—Mrs. Robert Hall. First Vice President—Mrs. F. M. Caughey. Second Vice President—Miss Elizabeth Smith. Secretary—Mrs. A. W. Tarnsett. Treasurer—Mrs. W. E. Hastings. Pianist—Mrs. W. H. Seward. Assistant—Mrs. D. H. Beers. Young Women's Superintendent—Mrs. F. H. Smith. Junior Superintendent—Mrs. F. M. Caughey.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer for the past year were read and showed the organization to be in excellent shape financially and in regard to work done. Mrs. Caughey's report of the Pittsburgh convention was a splendid discussion of proceedings at that session and proved most interesting to the members.

HEAVY LOADS DO DAMAGE

Highway Commissioner Requests Truck Owners to Reduce Tonnage. State Highway Commissioner Sisson has called the attention of motor truck owners throughout the state to the importance of limiting the weight of their loads to approximately two-thirds of the capacity of the truck until warm weather sets in, as the roads are in soft condition and heavy loads will cause serious damage to the improved state highways.

During the winter frost penetrated roads to a considerable depth and in order to prevent the destruction of pavements by overloaded trucks Commissioner Sisson requests truck owners for the next two months to limit their loads to the carrying capacity of the roads.

"If this request is complied with," writes Commissioner Sisson, "it is my belief that a large sum of money will be saved by the state in repairs and users of motor trucks will be greatly benefited by the generally improved condition of the highways during the rest of the year."

GUILTY IN SECOND DEGREE

Plea Accepted by District Attorney and Court, and Offender Is Committed to Auburn Prison for Not Less Than 20 Years — Court Resumes Trial of Cases Today.

Soon after the opening of court at Delhi yesterday morning, Edward Goodall, colored, the chap who stabbed his fellow workman on the Gilboa reservoir job, inflicting fatal injuries, following a quarrel over a game of cards, was brought into court and through his attorneys, Hamilton J. Hewitt and Fred W. Youmans, pleaded guilty to the charge of murder in the second degree.

He had been indicted on the first degree charge, but the plea was accepted by District Attorney O'Connor and was accepted by Judge Kellogg, the presiding judge. The latter then sentenced Goodall to Auburn prison for not less than 20 years and not more than his natural life. It is understood that by good behavior the convicted man can reduce the time to 15 years. He is a young man and it is believed not an old offender. He will be taken to Auburn at once by the sheriff. It is understood.

There were good reasons for believing that a jury would not find the accused man guilty of any greater degree than second. It is understood that both parties in the encounter were flashing knives and that the defense could show this. It could not be shown that there was any ill feeling prior to the quarrel, it is said.

In Delaware county, though there was a possibility that the expense of the trial, which would have reached several thousand dollars, would have been collected from the city of New York, as the men were in the employ of the contractors on the water job, there is satisfaction over the settlement of the case without a trial.

The court was given an intimation the previous night that there might be a plea of guilty in the second degree entered, and the sheriff was instructed not to commence summoning the extra panel of 100 jurors drawn until yesterday morning, after court opened, awaiting the result. The jury will accordingly not be summoned.

Justice Kellogg was at his home yesterday, but returns to Delhi Thursday morning to commence the trial of Edward E. Risley against the Moon Motor Car company of New York. It is expected that the grand jury will finish its work and be ready to report late in the day tomorrow.

Cases which were yesterday morning reported as ready for trial next week are: Any E. Davis against Samuel J. Tate, Agnes Smith against administratrix of the estate of Everett J. Smith deceased against the D. & H. R. R. company, Fred A. Stevens against Wallace W. Tompkins.

At the opening of court the desk of the presiding judge was liberally adorned with roses and carnations, it is understood through the thoughtfulness of the district attorney of the county, A. L. O'Connor of Hobart.

A BIGGER AND BETTER SCHOOL

Residents of Laurens and Vicinity Plan Consolidated Districts and New School Building.

As was briefly stated in The Star of Tuesday morning, Superintendent Harrison Cossart of the Fifth Otsego district, accompanied by President Brightman of the Laurens school board, and S. C. Millard, also of that village, were in Albany Monday in consultation with the officers of the State Education Department. The purpose of the visit, it is understood, was the consideration of tentative plans which, if carried out, will, it is believed, result in a bigger and better school for village and vicinity.

Briefly outlined, it is stated that the proposition is to consolidate three other school districts with Laurens village. These are the Blood's Mills district, situated on the Otsego creek about two miles north of Laurens village, the Strong district on the New Lisbon road, which is a little nearer, and the Allen district below the village and about one and a half miles distant. These, combined with the Laurens village district, will be sufficient to provide a new and better building, and a good attendance for a school of higher grade than is now found in the township, and with a better quality of instruction than could ordinarily be secured in separate schools.

In all the districts, including that in the village, the school accommodations are inadequate, and in the three outlying districts the buildings are all of old type and likely at an early date to be condemned.

After consultation with the state school officials, among them Commissioner Graves and Assistant Commissioner Frank E. Gilbert, the visitors to Albany decided, after their return, to call an informal meeting of taxpayers of the four districts to be held Tuesday evening, March 28, at Laurens. At this time the matter will be fully discussed, and if the matter meets with a fair degree of approval, a special meeting of the districts will later be held to vote on consolidation.

Letters will be sent out today or tomorrow to all taxpayers, explaining fully the situation, and there is no doubt that a matter which is of such vital concern to the welfare of the youth of Otsego valley will have the fullest and fairest consideration.

WANTED IN BINGHAMTON

A. J. Bryant, Held Here on Charge of Passing Bad Checks, May Be Man Who Chief of Police Cronin of Binghamton Is Seeking for Parole Violation — Case Will Be Heard Here Thursday.

According to a dispatch in the Binghamton Press of last evening, A. J. Bryant, who is under arrest here charged with petit larceny, it being claimed that he has passed several bad checks in the city, may prove to be the Allison J. Bryant, alias Smith and Aldrich, for whom the Binghamton police hold a bench warrant on a charge of violating his parole.

Bryant was arrested in Syracuse, where it is said he has a criminal record, on Monday at the request of the local police and was brought to Oneonta yesterday by Chief Horton. When arraigned before Acting City Judge Hathaway in city court he asked for an adjournment of the case until Thursday at 10 o'clock. The request was granted and he was remanded to the city jail, he being unable to furnish bail. It is charged that while posing as a security salesman here some weeks ago he passed several bad checks on the Wilber National bank, among them one on Killbuck's restaurant. Mr. Killbuck, making the complaint which caused Bryant's arrest. It is said that he obtained about $200 in this city.

Says the Binghamton Press in regard to the case: "Allison J. Bryant, alias Smith and Aldrich, was arrested in Binghamton Sept. 12, 1921, by Detective Sergeant John I. Crawford, and Detective Jerome Donahue in connection with the passing of two alleged worthless checks."

"The Bryant arrested here was indicted on a charge of forgery, second degree, and on a charge of grand larceny in the second degree. When arraigned on one of the charges he pleaded guilty in county court and sentence was suspended. He was placed on probation to Humane Officer Samuel J. Koerbel, to make restitution for the first of his fraudulent operations by Feb. 12, 1922."

"Shortly after he was paroled he disappeared from the city after giving Charles T. Besant, proprietor of a restaurant at 133 Chenango street, a check for $5 on the Wilber bank in Oneonta, which was returned marked 'no funds.' "Chief Cronin said late this afternoon that the Bryant arrested for the Oneonta police had not as yet been identified as the Allison J. Bryant who is wanted here for violation of his parole. Chief Cronin is investigating."

SIZE AFFECTS METHODS

Experience Indicates Where Plenty of Garden Space is Available Inter-cropping Doesn't Pay.

Ithaca, March 14. — The size of the garden should have a definite effect on the gardening methods used, say the gardeners at the state college of agriculture here.

Broadly speaking, the workers think the distinction holds between the garden of limited area and the farm garden, which holds between European and American farming—one seeks the greatest possible production from a given area, the other maximum production from a given amount of time and labor.

The gardener who has plenty of land at his disposal will do well to have long straight rows spaced far enough apart for horse cultivation, or at least for easy wheel-hoe work, and he need give little attention to the conservation of space by intercropping and succession cropping.

Which Land Is Scarce.

The gardener whose land is limited, however, and whose leisure hours are relatively plentiful may be an intensive gardener.

He will have his soil as fertile as possible, space the rows closely, and try to follow one crop by another the same year. Radishes grown between rows of parsnips or carrots will be gone before the latter crops need the space. Lettuce may be grown between cabbage rows and even between cabbage plants in the row. Onion sets may be thrust into the ground wherever there is a vacant space and used early as green onions. Peas and early turnips may be removed in time for late snap beans, in most parts of the state.

THE value of the New Series of the good Maxwell is just as astonishing today as when these fine cars made their first appearance. The passage of time, and developments in the industry itself, only serve to emphasize their conspicuous position in today's market.
